POPULAR YOUNG WOMAN WEDDED LAST NIGHT

Mrs. Bessie Hanson Marries Mr. Herbert Hill; Newlyweds Will Residence in Belen.

At the home of the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt, 588 East Central avenue, at 8 o'clock last night, Mrs. Bessie Hanson, a very popular young lady of this city, was married to Mr. Herbert Hill, an equally well known and popular conductor for the Santa Fe railroad. Rev. Hugh A. Cooper, pastor of the Presbyterian church, read the marriage service. Mr. Oscar Blumberg and Miss Charlotte Pratt, sister of the bride, were the witnesses. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. The newly married couple were the recipients of a number of handsome wedding gifts from their friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Hill will make their home in Belen.

For some years Mr. Hill was a clerk in the newsstand in a similar position in Belen when the Harvey house was built there. The transfer of Mrs. Hanson, now Mrs. Hill, to Belen was the beginning of the romance which culminated in the marriage here last evening. The newlyweds will have the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends for happiness in their new life.

DAILY GRIND OF THE CITY POLICE COURT

Paddy Louis, on the complaint of his wife, was today locked up for fifteen days. When accused this morning of quarreling and disorderly conduct this morning, he gave one swift glance at his wife, who was present to testify, and said "Goody." This is not the first time that the law has been invoked to assist his temper to subside, and the fact was taken into consideration in giving him fifteen days.

Pill Block, arrested for being polluted, was examined by the judge, who decided that he would look better jugged. Wouldn't that jar you? He paid five dollars for his round trip into the cells.

The case against Pete Parenti charged with violation of city ordinances concerning houses of disorder, was again postponed this morning until an important witness in the trial can be found. The case may come up in the morning.

Prof. H. Seeler, a noted archaeologist of Berlin, Stogatz, arrived in the city this morning and will spend several days as the guest of Herman Schweizer, manager and editor of the Harvey museum.

Are you studying economy? Most everybody is nowadays. You can make a small amount of money go a long ways if you purchase your bout wear of us. We are having a clearance sale—sound natural—but is quite different from many in that it is real and not visionary. We have solved the economy question for many; let us help you. C.
